I learn from the Government Memorandum cited above that charges have been framed against Janab Syed Mahaboob, Revenue Divisional Officer, Eluru, in Departmental Enquiry No.110/51 pending before the Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings, Madras, and that the charges will be enquired into on the 8th and 9th February 1952 at Madras. The charges relate to obtaining supplies without paying for them. I was not aware that any such enquiry was pending against him. It is an off-shoot of the enquiry against Sri M.V. Narasimha Rao, formerly Deputy Tahsildar, Chintalapudi. In the circumstances, I am sure the Board will agree that Mr. Mahaboob should not be retained as Revenue Divisional Officer and Sub Divisional Magistrate, Eluru, any longer than is absolutely necessary. The counting of votes in the Eluru and Chintalapudi Assembly Constituencies, for which he is Returning Officer, will be over by 25-1-1952, and I recommend that he may be transferred as soon as possible after that. I request you kindly to acknowledge the receipt of this letter. My Personal Assistant for Elections, Janab Sardar Khan, who has previously worked as Revenue Divisional Officer in this district will be available if the Board is willing to place him in additional charge until the post is filled. I can spare his services, because most of the Election work will be over by about the 25th January.

I am to invite your attention to the Board's D.O. Ref.No.23/52, dated 16-2-1952 in which revised proposals have been sbmitted for the relief of Sri S.U. Parasurama Nayak. As Janab Syed Mahaboob does not know Tamil and cannot manage a heavy division like Kumbakonam, he could not be proposed for Kumbakondam; nor could Sri Venkanna, who does not know Tamil be posted outside the Andhra districts. Sri T.R. Venkataraman and Sri R. Pasupathi are Tamilians in Telugu districts without school going children. They were therefore preferred to others.
